ESPRIT HOME – WINTER COLLECTION 2014

Press Release

Ratingen, July 2014. Buenos Aires, Palma de Mallorca, Cape Town – once more Esprit home ventured out on a journey around the globe of interior design. Now, it's about time for some serenity, calmness and a new collection that is dedicated to the Scandinavian winter.

Stockholm: The power of tranquillity

Stockholm shows the world how exciting it is to be just a tad more at ease than other metropolises. Especially in winter time, when snow coats the streets like a layer of deliciously cool, sugary frosting, the city turns more introspective. This goes for the grand splendour of the city's centre as well as for the Södermalm island. "Söder", as the former workers' quarter is now called, is home to the city's younger and creative side. It's a trendy area, no doubt. And yet it begs to differ. It's not as quirky and not as posh. Think more dreamy, quiet and at times almost romantic and you get the picture.

With their high ceilings, large windows and lavishly sized rooms, the apartments around Götgatan are meant to be drenched in the light of the winter sun. Everything is set out to gleam and shine, the floral watercolours of the "Susa" cushion cover just as much as the "Stockholm" wallpaper with its Scandinavian turn on origami patterns. And speaking of colours and graphic shapes, the block stripes of the Nepalese "Casual" capret and the large checks of the "Relax" cushion cover, designed in particularly soft and natural shades, cater to the overall "less is obviously more" attitude.

Dreams and imagination

During winter nature withdraws to gather new energy? But, not when it comes to Esprit home. Here, imagination is already in full bloom long before the first signs of spring. The pale floral prints of the "Icy" cushion cover, the "Dreams" curtains and the "Dream flower" carpet create a world that appears to be painted in watercolours. The "Texture" cushion blends structures instead of colours, so the head can rest on a finely woven mix of materials. Ideal conditions for many beautiful daydreams.
